

Addendum #2
To Uniform Purchase Agreement
Disclosure of Information and Testing Contingency for LEAD-BASED PAINT and LEAD-BASED PAINT HAZARDS

Property Address: _____

Date: _____

Lead Warning Statement

Every Purchaser of any interest in residential real property on which a residential dwelling was built prior to 1978 is notified that such property may present exposure to lead from lead-based paint that may place young children at risk of developing lead poisoning. Lead poisoning in young children may produce permanent neurological damage, including learning disabilities, reduced intelligence quotient, behavioral problems, and impaired memory. Lead poisoning also poses a particular risk to pregnant women. The Seller of any interest in residential real property is required to provide the buyer with any information on lead-based paint hazards from risk assessments or inspections in the Seller's possession and notify the buyer of any known lead-based paint hazards. A risk assessment or inspection for possible lead-based paint hazards is recommended prior to purchase.

Testing Contingency:

This contract upon a risk assessment of the property for the presence of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards at the Purchaser's sole cost until 5:00 P.M. ____ on the tenth day after acceptance OR ____ the following mutually agreed date _____. This contingency will terminate at the above predetermined deadline unless the Purchaser (or the Purchaser's agent) delivers to the Seller (or the Seller's agent) a written contract addendum listing the specific existing deficiencies and corrections needed, together with a copy of the inspection and/or risk assessment report. The Seller may, at the Seller option, within 5 days after delivery of the addendum, elect in writing whether to correct the condition(s) prior to settlement. If the Seller will correct the condition(s), the Seller shall furnish the Purchaser with certification from a risk assessor or inspector demonstrating that the condition has been remedied before the date of settlement. If the Seller does not elect to make the repairs or if the Seller makes a counter-offer, the Purchaser shall have 2 days to respond to the counter-offer or remove this contingency and take the property "as is" condition or this contract shall become void. The Purchaser may remove this contingency at any time without cause.
