Pre-Kindergarten, Kindergarten, Elementary and Middle

49 Campbell St, Flesherton, ON N0C 1E0, Canada

Macphail is a big, beautiful school that was built in 2004. We are located in the Village of Flesherton in Southern Grey County. There are over 500 students attending our school. Macphail is a dual-track school that strives to meet the needs of our students in both English and French Immersion. We also have a growing population of students from our local Mennonite Communities which provide us with exposure to the German culture as well.

Grey Highlands Secondary School, home of the Lions, is a high school with an enrolment of approximately 950 students located in Flesherton, Ontario. The school opened in 1968. The school has undergone many growth and renovation periods, including the most recent expansion in 2006 of a new east wing on the school that added several classrooms and computer labs. The school is home to many successful athletic teams, including many that have won regional and provincial championships. Grey Highlands also boasts several strong academic and technological studies programs, and offers two high-skills majors in Environmental Studies and in Horticultural Science.
