85 Grand Ave W, Chatham, ON N7L 1B6, Canada

Our school celebrates over 150 years of a rich tradition of Catholic, Christian education. Once a school for girls, our school now comprises 1200 young women and men. The Ursuline Sisters legacy lives on as our value system is rooted in their teachings and in those of the Catholic Church. It demands that students develop a love and reverence for God and creation, behave in a just and concerned manner regarding others, seek to be honest and truthful, and accept the principles required for dedicated commitment and responsible behaviour. We are proud of our school because of its long tradition of excellence. It has been a quality educational facility since 1860 and will continue this tradition into the millennium.
