

Stately all brick, two-story home on a coveted South Roanoke street. This well-appointed home offers the details that homebuyers with discerning tastes are searching for. There are 12-foot ceilings with wainscoting throughout. Storage is not an issue in this home, including an attached oversized garage with pull-down steps to overhead storage. The large open kitchen will please all the cooks in the family. With its travertine counters, gas cooktop with built-in grill, and loads of cabinets. The well-appointed kitchen opens to a beautiful breakfast area, butler's pantry, and formal dining room. The upper level offers a convenient laundry area, 4 bedrooms and 3 full baths with the primary bath offering double shower heads. A room with a fireplace makes a perfect family area or home office. There is a finished attic for additional living space and a view of the downtown area. Only minutes to Carilion Roanoke Memorial Hospital and VTC School of Medicine, this is one home you do not want to let slip away.