NOTICE TO PARTIES A Seller must comply with the Seller Disclosure Law and disclose to a Buyer all known material defects about the Property being sold that are not real
Statement is designed to assist the Seller in completed by the Seller and each page initialed by the Buyer and Seller following their review. This Disclosure Statement is designed to assist the Seller in complying with disclosure requirements and to assist the Buyer in evaluating the Property being considered. This form is to be completed by every non-exempt Seller, even if the Seller does not occupy or never occupied the property. The compliance provisions a generally described in paragraphs 19 and 21 below. The Real Estate Seller Disclosure Law requires that before an Agreement of Sale is signed, the Seller in a residential real estate transfer must make certain disclosures regarding the property to potential buyers in a form defined by the law, 68, P.S. $7301 et seg. The law defines a residential real estate.	ure ed. are ake transfer as a sale, exchange, installment sales contract, lease with an option to buy, grant, or other transfer of an interest in real property where NOT LEST THAN ONE AND NOT MORE THAN FOUR RESIDENTIAL DWELLING UNITS are involved. The law defines a number of exceptions where the disclosur do not have to be made, and these exceptions are as follows:	SS res
 Transfers that are the result of a court order. Transfers to a mortgage lender that result from a buyer's default and subsequent foreclosure sales that result from default.
Transfers from a co-owner to one or more other co-owners. Transfers made to a spouse or direct descendant.
5. Transfers between spouses that result from divorce, legal separation, or property settlement.
 Transfers by a corporation, partnership, or other association to its shareholders, partners, or other equity owners as part of a plan of liquidation. Transfer of a property to be demolished or converted to non-residential use.
 Transfer of unimproved real property. Transfers by a fiduciary during the administration of a decedent estate, guardianship, conservatorship, or trust.
10.Transfers of new construction that has never been occupied when: a. The buyer has a warranty of at least one year covering the construction;
 b. The building has been inspected for compliance with the applicable building code or, if none, a nationally recognized model building code; and c. A certificate of occupancy or a certificate of code compliance has been issued for the dwelling.
Except where these exceptions apply, the Seller is required to satisfy the requirements of the Real Estate Seller Disclosure Law as they may amended and is required to make disclosures in accordance with the provisions of the Law. Although there are exceptions to the requirements of the Seller	be Disclosure Law, certain disclosures may still be required under Common Law.
In addition to these exceptions, disclosures for condominiums and cooperatives are limited to the seller's particular unit(s). Disclosures regard common areas or facilities are not required, as those elements are already addressed in the laws that govern the resale of condominium and cooperative.	ing ve inspections or warranties that the Buyer may wish to obtain. This Statement is not a warranty of any kind by the Seller or a warranty or representation the West Penn Multi-List, Inc., any listing real estate broker, any selling real estate broker, or their agents. The Buyer is encouraged to address concern about any condition of the Property that may not be included in this statement with the Seller and/or by and through an appropriate inspection. The Statement does not relieve the Seller of the obligation to disclose a material defect that may not be addressed on this form. This form is intended to assist Sellers in complying with the disclosure requirements and/or to assist Buyers in evaluating the property being considered as such, certain information may be beyond the basic disclosure requirements found in the Law. A Seller who wishes to review the basic disclosure for can find the form on the website of the Pennsylvania State Real Estate Commission. In any event, Seller(s) must disclose all known material defects with the property.	by ns nis red.

If an item of information is unknown or not available to Seller and Seller has made an effort to ascertain it Seller may make a disclosure based on the	the best information available provided it is identified as a disclosure based on an incomplete factual basis. A material defect is an issue/problem with the residential real Property or any portion of it that would have a significant adverse impact on the value of tresidential real Property or that INVOLVES AN UNREASONABLE RISK TO PEOPLE ON THE LAND OR PROPERTY. The fact that a structural element system, or subsystem is near, at, or beyond the normal useful life of such structural element, system, or subsystem is not by itself a material defect. Whe completing this form, check "yes," "no," "unknown (unk)," or "not applicable (N/A)" for each question. If a question does not apply to the propert "N/A" should be selected. "Unknown (unk)" should only be checked when the question does apply to the property but the Seller is uncertain of the answer. 1. SELLER'S EXPERTISE	nt, en tv

NOTICE TO BUYER: Notice regarding condominiums, cooperatives, and homeowners' associations: According to Section 3407 of the Uniformed Condominium Act (68 Pa.C.S.§3407) (Relating to resales of units) and 68 Pa. C.S.§4409 (Relating to resales of cooperative interests) and Section 5407 of the Uniform Planned Community Act (68 Pa.C.S.A. 5407), a Buyer of a resale Unit must receive a Certificate of Resale issued by the Association. The Buyer will have the option of canceling the Agreement with return of all deposit moneys until the Certificate has been provided to the Buyer and for five days thereafter or until conveyance, whichever occurs first. The Seller must be sure the Buyer receives a Resale Certificate. In addition, a Buyer of a Resale Unit in a condominium, cooperative, or planned community must receive a copy of the declaration (other than the plats and plans), the by-laws, the rules of regulations, and a certificate of resale issued by the association in the condominium, cooperative, or planned community. Buyers may be responsible for capital contributions, initiation fees, or similar one-time fees in addition to regular monthly maintenance fees. The buyer will have the option of canceling the agreement with the return of all deposit monies until the certificate has been provided to the buyer and for five (5) days thereafter or until conveyance, whichever occurs first.

DUAL AGENCY CONSENT AND CONFIRMATION AGREEMENT

(To be signed by Buyer before signing offer and to be signed by Seller before reviewing offer.)

 Seller and Buyer acknowledge and agree that the purchase agreement they are considering involves representation by a Disclosed Dual Agent. The following information details the roles of the parties regarding Dual Agency.

Note: When the term "DUAL AGENT" is used, it will always mean the Broker (Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices The Preferred Realty) who, by contracts previously entered into, represents the interests of both the Buyer and the Seller in this agreement. The term DUAL AGENT will apply to a Salesperson/Associate Broker only if the same Salesperson/Associate Broker has been previously identified as the Designated Agent to represent the interests of both parties (Buyer and Seller) named in this agreement. If the Designated Agent of the Buyer and the Designated Agent of the Seller are not the same Salesperson/Associate Broker, then the term Dual Agent will apply only to the Broker, and the Buyer and Seller will each continue to be fully represented by their previously identified Designated Agents.

- 2. Dual Agent's Role: Seller and Buyer acknowledge that, prior to the creation of the Dual Agency, the Agent represented either the Buyer or the Seller. The Agent acted as the Agent of Seller or acted as the Agent of Buyer. In those separate roles, the Agent may have obtained information which, if disclosed, could harm the bargaining position of the party providing such information to the Agent. Seller and Buyer agree that the Dual Agent shall not be liable to either party for refusing or failing to disclose information which would harm one party's bargaining position and would benefit the other party. However, this Agreement shall not prevent the Agent from disclosing to Buyer any known material defects in the property or any other matter that must be disclosed by state law and/or regulation. The Agent agrees not to disclose (a) to Buyer information about what price Seller will accept other than the Listing Price, or (b) to Seller information about what price Buyer will pay other than any written offered price. In the event that Seller and Buyer do not enter into an agreement for the purchase of Seller's property by Buyer (the "Purchase Agreement"), or in the event that the Purchase Agreement between Seller and Buyer does not close, the Dual Agency role and this Agreement will be terminated.
- 3. Seller's and Buyer's Role: Seller and Buyer acknowledge that they are aware of the implication of the Agent's Dual Agency role including the limitation on the Agent's ability to represent Seller or Buyer fully and exclusively. Seller and Buyer have determined that the benefits of entering into a transaction between them with the Agent acting as agent for both of them outweigh such implications. Seller and Buyer understand that they may each seek independent legal counsel in order to assist with any matter relating to a Purchase Agreement or to the transaction which is the subject matter of a Purchase Agreement. Seller and Buyer agree that Agent shall not be liable for any claims, damages, losses, expenses or liabilities arising from the Agent's role as a Dual Agent. Seller and Buyer shall have a duty to protect their own interests and should read this Agreement and any Purchase Agreement carefully to ensure that they accurately set forth the terms which they want included in said agreements.
- 4. Seller and Buyer agree that all "comparable" property information available through the Multiple Listing Service or otherwise, including listed and sold properties, may be disclosed to both Seller and Buyer. Agent will not advise or counsel Seller or Buyer, interpret data, or make recommendations based on this information.
- Seller and Buyer understand and agree that Broker compensation is not set by law and is fully negotiable. Broker shall have the right to collect compensation or a fee from the Seller, the Buyer, or both according to the terms of their respective agency contracts.
- 6. Seller and Buyer are advised to seek competent legal and tax advice with regard to this transaction, and with regard to all documents executed in connection with this transaction including this Dual Agency Consent Agreement.

7.	Seller and Buyer recognize and agree that this doc	ument does not replace those documents signed earlier, i.e. the Buyer Agency
	Contract signed by the Buyer on	, and the Exclusive Right to Sell Listing Agreement signed by the Seller
	on however, in any are	eas where this document contradicts or conflicts with those documents, this Dual Agency Consent Agreement shall supersede. This a	greement hereby becomes a part of the attached Purchase Agreement entered into between the parties whose signatures appear b
