

Special Features | 111 Montclair Avenue, Montclair

Beautifully scaled five-bedroom center hall Colonial, where classic architecture and thoughtful updates come together seamlessly. Original details, including hardwood floors and leaded glass windows, add depth and character, paired with a highly functional layout designed for everyday living.

Main Living Spaces

Living room with wood-burning fireplace and detailed millwork
Sun-filled adjoining room, ideal as a private office or quiet retreat
Formal dining room with leaded glass windows and elegant proportions

Kitchen

Expanded eat-in kitchen designed for both style and function
Quartz center island with seating
Thermador appliances including double wall ovens
Dedicated dining area overlooking the backyard
Generous prep and workspace

First Floor Details

Renovated powder room
Convenient mudroom area positioned near the kitchen and lower level
Outdoor Space
Deep, level, private backyard Bluestone patio for dining and entertaining
Fully fenced property
Detached two-car garage with electric opener
Lush landscaping with mature perennial plantings, flowering trees, and charming window boxes

Lower Level

Finished basement with spacious recreation room
Powder room
Laundry area
Ample storage throughout

Second Floor

Three generously sized bedrooms
Primary suite with custom closet
Beautifully renovated, spa-like en-suite bath with double vanity
Full hall bathroom with tub and shower
Hardwood floors throughout

Third Floor

Two additional bedrooms offering flexible use
Full bathroom with tub and shower
Excellent storage

Additional Features

Hardwood floors throughout
Original architectural details, including glass doorknobs
Abundant natural light across all levels

Location

Ideally positioned between Watchung Plaza and Walnut Street Village, both offering NYC direct train access, vibrant shops, restaurants, and the popular Walnut Street Farmers Market