

Township Lifestyle Map

About Berkeley Heights

Berkeley Heights is one of Union County's most desirable residential communities, known for its charming downtown, highly regarded schools, and exceptional access to New York City. Residents enjoy proximity to renowned parks such as Watchung Reservation, premier golf clubs, and vibrant neighboring towns including Summit and New Providence. The community blends classic suburban charm with convenient access to major business and transportation corridors.

Approximate driving times from 181 Maple Ave, Berkeley Heights.

Regional Access

- New York City – ~35 miles
- Newark Liberty Airport – ~25 minutes
- The Hamptons – ~2.5 hours
- Jersey Shore Beaches – ~60–75 minutes

Highly Regarded Schools

- Mountain Park School
- Columbia Middle School
- Governor Livingston High School

Luxury Lifestyle

- Baltusrol Golf Club – Host of multiple U.S. Opens and PGA Championships
- Mall at Short Hills – One of the Northeast's premier luxury shopping destinations
- Downtown Summit – Upscale dining, boutiques, and vibrant nightlife
- Watchung Reservation – Nearly 2,000 acres of protected nature and trails

Nearby Town Centers

Summit • New Providence • Basking Ridge • Chatham • Short Hills