Rare opportunity to own a spacious ranch-style home in sought-after Hasbrouck Heights, located on a quiet dead-end street. A welcoming foyer opens to a large formal dining room with decorative columns, leading into a bright kitchen featuring a center island, skylight, ample cabinetry, and a seating area—perfect for a coffee bar. The impressive vaulted family room offers a gas fireplace, double sliding glass doors with sidelights, a Palladian-style window, and a French door providing access to the backyard.

The home features a generously sized primary bedroom with two double closets, a modern full bath with whirlpool tub, walk-in shower, and linen closet, two additional bedrooms and another full bath completing the main living level, which features hardwood flooring, tile, and newer carpeting. The partially finished lower level offers vinyl flooring, laundry area, powder room, and unfinished storage.

Additional features include multi-zone gas hot water baseboard heat, two central A/C systems, and whole house backup generator. The backyard includes a paver patio and walkway, oversized garage, and shed. Conveniently located near Depken Field, parks, shopping, and major highways and an amazing downtown shopping area.
