

Discover your own piece of paradise at Hale Kulapono.

In 1971, sellers' connection to Hana began with two unforgettable nights at the Heavenly Hana Inn during their Hawaii honeymoon. They returned in 1984 and every year thereafter, ultimately purchasing a vacant lot with a view on Kalo Road in 1990. Their dream home took shape in 1995, followed by the Ohana in 1996. For years, Hale Kulapono has been a cherished place to recharge, gather with family, and create lasting memories. We are grateful to pass on this special property on to someone who imagines making Hana part of their own story.
