Elementary and Middle

270 Alfred Paterson Dr, Markham, ON L6E 2G1, Canada

Sam Chapman Public School is a single track French Immersion school. It was officially opened in 2010. The school has developed its name from one of our former Directors of Education who was a champion of literacy, inclusion and education for all. Our school motto is a symbol of a Champion.... We strive to be champions of learning, equity, inclusivity and the environment. The teaching staff is committed to meeting the needs of our dynamic student population. Both the academic and social development of our students are very important to our staff. We believe that students should like to come to school and want to learn. Technology is used to deepen learning in authentic purposes. At Sam Chapman PS, we strongly believe in French Immersion and the importance of learning a second language in a rapidly changing world.
