St. Joseph Catholic School opened its doors to serve Catholic families in Aurora in 1961. Our school has a long standing history and tradition in the community. We celebrated our 50th anniversary in October 2011. We are inspired by St. Paul's message to produce graduates who exemplify Catholic virtues, attitudes and actions. Guided by Ontario Catholic School Graduate Expectations, our students learn, grow and seek to transform the world through faith, hope and love! We are called to provide safe and caring schools, Catholic communities of faith and quality learning by all, with Jesus as our inspiration.
