It was renamed James MacDonald after mountain alderman, Jim MacDonald (1905 - 1985), in 1960 when it was annexed by the City of Hamilton. There have been two additions made to the school since it was built. The first addition was made in 1978 and another in 1991. Our current school population is 265 students. James MacDonald School is located in an area of new housing development and is surrounded by the beautiful Gourley Park.
