J. Clarke Richardson Collegiate

about a 6 minute walk - 0.42 KM

High

1355 Harwood Ave N, Ajax, ON L1Z 1Y7, Canada

Opened in September of 2002, J. Clarke Richardson Collegiate is part of the innovative Ajax Multi-Use School Project which combines the high schools of the Durham DSB (J. Clarke Richardson Collegiate) and the Durham Catholic DSB (Notre Dame CSS) along with a shared cafeteria, theatre and main sports field into one large campus. Richardson Collegiate occupies the southern portion of the site while Notre Dame occupies the northern portion. The schools are separated on the inside by the shared cafeteria and theatre. The complex accommodates approximately 3,000 students plus 250 staff in total, yet the schools operate in isolation from each other so the feeling is that of a regular, large high school. The shared facilities includes a 500 seat theatre, a food court that can seat 1,000 persons and the irrigated outdoor sports field. The Richardson culinary arts program operates out of a state of the art kitchen and provides the food for both student populations before school and at lunch.

In the Gospel of John it is written that Jesus said to the disciples, "I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you should also love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples..." Inherent in this commandment is the earlier instruction from Jesus to love God and to love your neighbour as you love yourself. We at Notre Dame will seek to foster this acceptance of the Gospel message through a life which accepts the challenge to be charitable (caritas) and to seek wisdom (sapientia) and harmony (concordia). We at Notre Dame accept that our community extends far beyond the walls of our building. Our goal is to reach and serve the broader Ajax community be it through the contribution our students can make via excellence in academics or through Catholic Christian community service.
