École Walter E Harris PS

3.91 KM away

Elementary and Middle

495 Central Park Blvd N, Oshawa, ON L1G 6A2, Canada

The Walter E. Harris school community is a safe and caring one with a focus on academics, safety and character education. The school team works collaboratively to emphasize success for each student. Students begin the French Immersion program in grade one, and are taught in French 100% of the time throughout the primary years. From grades four to eight, half the curriculum is taught in French while the other half is taught in English. The Walter E. Harris staff is committed to delivering strong academic programs focused on literacy and numeracy and to providing opportunities for students to develop the knowledge, skills and attitudes required to become successful, lifelong learners. We work collaboratively with the community to achieve our mission statement, "A unique and caring experience" / "Me tient a coeur".

R. S. McLaughlin Collegiate strives to create a positive learning environment to assist in the development of each student academically, physically, emotionally, socially and morally. We are a semestered school of 1000 students offering a wide variety of courses. In addition, we provide three special programs at R. S. McLaughlin, namely Multi-Exceptional, Senior Associated and French Immersion. All programs and departments are supported by Guidance, Special Education and the Resource Centre. Teachers place a strong emphasis on assessment and evaluation to improve student learning. In addition to their studies, students are involved in a wide range of co-curricular activities including sports, musical presentations, dramatic productions, Student Parliament and many clubs. Dedicated teachers and support staff, well-motivated students and actively involved parents, all contribute to the school's tradition of excellence.
